

11 February 2002
Art History W36456

Chicago School [and Adolf Loos]

For material on Josef Hoffman, Adolf Loos and Otto Wagner see list of 6 February
Adolf Loos (1870-1933) trip to the US 1893-6

James Bogardus and Daniel Badger and the Development of Cast Iron Architecture in the 1850s and 1860s
Daniel Badger's Illustrations of Iron Architecture 1865
Haughwout Building 1857-1865 by Gaynor and Badger (still standing on Broadway in SOHO)
Carey Building, 1865 (still standing on Chambers Street near West Broadway)
William Johnston, Jayne Building, Philadelphia 1849 (demolished)

George B. Post, Western Union Building, NY 1873
Richard Morris Hunt, New York Tribune Building, 1873

William LeBaron Jenney
Home Insurance Building, Chicago 1883-5
First Leiter Store Building, Chicago 1879
Second Leiter Store Building, Chicago 1889-91

John Wellborne Root (1850-91) and Daniel Burnham
The Rookery 1886, lobby later remodeled by Frank Lloyd Wright
Monadnock Building (Block), Chicago 1889-91
Burnham and Root, Reliance Building, Chicago 1890-94. (Charles Atwood designer)

H.H. Richardson, Marshall Field Wholesale Store, Chicago 1885-87

Louis Sullivan and Dankmar Adler
Auditorium Building, Chicago 1887-90
Wainwright Building, St. Louis 1891
Fraternity Temple Project for Chicago, 1891
Guarantee Building, Buffalo, NY 1894
The Tall Office Building Artistically Considered 1896
Bayard Building, New York 1898
Schlesinger and Meyer Department Store (today Carson, Pirie & Scott), Chicago 1899-1901, extension 1903-04
Theory of Architectural Ornament 1924: A System of Architectural Ornament, According with a Philosophy of Man's Powers.

World's Columbian Exhibition (World's Fair), Chicago 1893 (White City)

Leroy Buffington and patent claim on skyscraper 1888